MoonBots Challenge Rules

1. Description of the Challenge

The X PRIZE Foundation and Google have created the Google Lunar X PRIZE, a new, private race to the Moon that is engaging and exciting the global public while enabling the commercial exploration of space and dramatically reducing its cost. The Google Lunar X PRIZE is expected to increase the connection that individuals around the world feel to space exploration, science, and education by taking advantage of new tools for the rapid and targeted distribution of information. By reigniting a race to the Moon, the Google Lunar X PRIZE is intended to engage a new generation, making lunar exploration not just a historical accomplishment, but a tangible reality.

To further this purpose, the X PRIZE Foundation (XPF) and LEGO Group (LEGO), hereinafter collectively referred to as “the Sponsors” are administering “MoonBots, a Google Lunar X PRIZE LEGO® MINDSTORMS® Challenge,” hereinafter “MoonBots” or the “Challenge”. MoonBots is designed to challenge teams of adults and children (aged 9 years and older) to develop innovative systems made from LEGO MINDSTORMS kits that are capable of performing a simulated lunar mission. The Challenge is considered a “game of skill” and is designed to help teams learn about robotics and team building, while also providing excitement about the new Moon race.

To win the MoonBots Challenge, teams of youth (9 years and older) must first develop an education video about their interest in space exploration, design a simulated lunar robot, and test the robot with a LEGO MINDSTORMS kit. They also must complete a Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics (STEM) service project in the local community that supports their participation in the Challenge. The project should emphasize the importance of exploration of the Moon.

FIRST and WIRED Magazine, hereinafter collectively referred to as “the Co-Marketing Partners,” will to help promote the Challenge and provide prizes to the winning teams.

The Sponsors will hire a third party administrator, hereinafter the “Administrator”, to administrate the Challenge. The Administrator is an independent third party. At times during this Challenge, a representative of the Administrator may contact an applicant for customer service purposes. The Co-Marketing Partners will have no role in administration of the Challenge.

2. Binding Agreement

In order to enter the Challenge, all members of each Team, as well as the parents or legal guardians of each Team member below the age of majority, must agree to these Official Challenge Rules (“Rules”). The Rules consist of the terms and conditions on this page and the Entry Form and Consent Form (“Challenge Materials”). Because all Team members will be bound by these Rules, which form a legally binding agreement with respect to this Challenge, please read them carefully. Teams may not submit an entry to the Challenge and will not be eligible for the prizes described in these Rules unless all Team members agree to these Rules.

All Team members agree that registration for this Challenge and/or a submission of an entry form in the Challenge constitutes agreement to these Rules in their entirety.

The purpose of this document is to fully state the binding requirements for competing in the Challenge. Except as expressly set forth in herein, this document does not extend beyond activities related to the Challenge. This document may be revised at the sole discretion of the Sponsors, effective upon written notice.

3. Eligibility

No purchase or payment of any kind is necessary to enter or win the Challenge or to win any Prize. The Purchase of any good and/or service will not increase an entrant's chance of winning the Challenge.

All Team members must be at least 9 years of age as of the date of Team's registration in the Challenge in order to participate in the Challenge. The Team Captain must be over the age of majority in the Team captain's country of residence—the age of majority to enter into a binding contract can differ from country to country. In no case may the Team Captain be younger than 18 years of age. A Consent Form must be signed by a parent(s) or legal guardian(s) of each Team member below the age of majority in the Team member's country of residence. All Team members are required to abide by any legal restrictions, including those regarding age limitations, in the Team member's country of residence.

The Challenge is international; therefore Teams from all countries and with any background are eligible to participate in the Challenge, except where prohibited by applicable laws. The Challenge is void in Argentina, Quebec, and where prohibited or restricted by law. Prize awards, however, will be made in accordance with U.S. law which may restrict or prohibit awards to Teams within countries subject to U.S. sanctions and may subject international Teams to U.S. taxes.

All Team members must comply with licensing rules and agreements set forth in all design software, online services, and other software products used in the process of competing in the Challenge, including restrictions placed on the age of the user.

The official language of the Challenge is English. All communications with the Sponsors and the Administrator and all competition submissions shall be in English, unless the Team has received prior written permission. Additional copies in other languages are welcomed.

Employees and their immediate families (i.e., parents, spouse, children, siblings, grandparents, step parents, step children, and step siblings) of the Sponsors, Administrator, and Co-Marketing Partners are not eligible to enter the Challenge. Members of teams competing for the Google Lunar X PRIZE and their immediate families, as defined above, are eligible to compete in the Challenge.

By participating in this Challenge, Entrants agree to be bound by this document and by the interpretations of this document by the Sponsors of the Challenge, which are rendered final unless the Sponsors, in their sole discretion, agree to change them.

4. Team Members

Each Team must be composed of no more than five members, each of whom must be between 9 years of age and 17 years of age as of the date of May 9, 2011. The Team must have at least three members. The Team Captain is responsible for uploading all Team information to the Team's competition website. All online submissions of any kind related to the Challenge must be made by the Team Captain.

5. Compliance with Laws and Regulations

All Teams and all Team members must adhere to all local, regional, national, and international laws, orders, directives, ordinances, treaties, rules and regulations for all aspects of the Challenge. Teams are solely responsible for acquiring the appropriate licenses, waivers, or permits from the applicable regulatory bodies or other applicable third parties. All Team members must abide by relevant age restrictions for all software and hardware components used in the process of competing in the Challenge. The Sponsors, Administrator, and the Co-Marketing Partners shall in no way be responsible for providing to Teams any advice or counsel, legal or otherwise, with regard thereto.

E. Robot Specifications

i. Size

The Robot must occupy a ground footprint no larger than a single sheet of A4 paper (297 x 210 mm; 11.7 x 8.3 in) at the start of a traverse. The Robot may expand in size after starting, but only by adding the size of its own length in any direction from the Robot.

The Robot may use wheels or tracks only if they are constructed from standard LEGO parts.

ii. Materials

The Robot must be built entirely out of LEGO elements and must be controlled by LEGO MINDSTORMS NXT elements. Adhesives such as glue, tape, Velcro, or any material that through their use will enhance the structural strength of the assembly through the bonding of two surfaces shall not be permitted except for the attachment of the Camera. Only one LEGO MINDSTORMS NXT Intelligent Brick is allowed for each Robot. An unlimited number of LEGO motors, LEGO Technic or System bricks, and LEGO sensors can be used. Only sensors certified by the LEGO Group, produced by the LEGO Group, HiTechnic, and Codatex will be allowed.

iii. Software and Control

The Robot must be capable of running in an autonomous mode during the Live Mission Webcast. The Robot must run on a program downloaded to and executed on the NXT microcontroller. All Robots must be programmed with LEGO MINDSTORMS NXT-G or National Instruments LabVIEW with the LabVIEW NXT Toolkit, or LabVIEW for LEGO MINDSTORMS. Once the mission has begun, no outside interference (touching, light, sound, etc.) can be used to influence the Robot's path or programming. It must remain autonomous based on its own programming and sensor readings.

iv. Power

The Robot can be powered by any/all of the following: the LEGO MINDSTORMS NXT Intelligent Brick with six AA batteries; the LEGO MINDSTORMS NXT rechargeable battery pack; or a LEGO Power Functions battery pack. No other LEGO or third party batteries or battery packs are allowed.

v. Cameras

The Robot must carry a camera used to record video from the Robot while it is in operation during the Live Mission Webcast. Any make and model of camera may be used. The Team will be asked to provide a link to their video to the MoonBot.org site for review by the Phase Two judges. Teams must use the timestamp feature of Team's camera, calibrated to the correct time and date, when recording Team's video.

F. Live Mission Webcast

At the conclusion of Phase Two, at a date specified by the Sponsors, the Team must conduct a live webcast using a webcasting service identified or approved in advance by the Sponsors. The Live Mission Webcast must take place on a game board built by the Team according to the Challenge Blueprint. During this webcast, the Team's Robot must perform the following simulated lunar mission tasks within a period of 3 minutes after a start signal provided by or explicitly recognized by a Judge. The Team will get two opportunities to complete the following task. The best score will be selected.

i. LANDER DISMOUNT

Without physical interference beyond the initial activation of the Robot, the Robot must dismount from the 'Landing Base' built of LEGO bricks according to the Challenge Blueprint.

ii. DISCOVER WATER ICE/DISCOVER HELIUM 3 AND RETURN THE ELEMENTS TO BASE

The Robot must visit both the big and the small crater and discover 'Water Ice' and 'Helium 3.' The building instructions for the elements are available on the MoonBots website under the 'About the Game' section. There are two water ice elements in each crater and six Helium 3 elements placed at various places on the playing field. These elements can be collected and returned to the landing base by the Robot for additional bonuses.

iii. PHOTOGRAPH THE HERITAGE ARTIFACTS

The Robot must take a photograph or video shot of the 'heritage artifacts' built into the Moonscape according to the blueprints provided. The image must clearly and recognizably show all heritage artifacts to be complete. The heritage artifacts are the lunar rover and the lunar landing base located on the back wall of the challenge area behind the 'Peak of Eternal Light,' as shown in the Challenge Blueprint.

iv. SURVIVE THE LUNAR NIGHT

The Robot must 'survive the lunar night' prior to completing the Mission. This is simulated by driving the Robot on top of the 'Peak of Eternal Light' pad and stopping for 5 seconds.

v. RETURN TO BASE

Without physical interference, the Robot must return to the 'Landing Base' from which it started before the 3 minutes expire.

vi. CAPTURE MISSION VIDEO

During the entire simulated mission steps described, the Robot must record video of its mission to be submitted to the Judges directly after the round is completed.

G. Mission Round

The official round is 3 minutes in length. The observing Judge will ask the Team to begin when the Team Captain or another Team member indicates that the Team is ready. Each Team will receive only one attempt to complete the Live Mission Webcast requirements defined above. However, the Judge, at his or her sole discretion, may offer an additional attempt in the event where an external circumstance beyond the Team's control, in the sole opinion of the Judge, has interfered with the Live Mission Webcast.

If the Team's Robot gets stuck during the round, the Team may pick up or otherwise physically move the robot back to the Landing Base; however, in doing so, the Team will incur a point penalty. In such a case, neither the playing field nor the Robot may be physically altered, and the timer will not be reset. Any Water Ice or Helium 3 elements already collected by the Robot shall be removed from the Robot and shall not be placed back onto the playing field.

Please note that intentionally damaging the playing field is not in the spirit of the Challenge, and therefore will disqualify the Team. The Team's Robot may not intentionally crash through or destroy, in the sole discretion of the Judge, objectives in its path.

15. Judging

This Challenge is a “Game of Skill”. Each Team will be judged upon a set of criteria. The Sponsors will empanel a group of experts to serve as Judges for the Challenge. The Judges may include representatives from some or all of the Sponsors and/or Co-Marketing Partners. Additionally, Judges may include external experts.
